René Thomsen, incidentally also owner of the Backline Rental Service in Isernhagen, delivers his third studio album here. Already the opener "Rise" shows impressively, where the musical journey goes. Fat guitars, powerful double bass drum, great vocals and ingenious solos conjure up a magnificent, metal sound, which runs through all ten songs of the album.

Fans of Bands like DIO, Judas Priest, Metal Church, Accept or similar big names of the scene should have their true joy. Mix and mastering was done by Charlie Bauerfeind, who is known to have worked with Bands like Blind Guardian, Gamma Gamma Ray, Saxon, Gotthard and many others. to the right sound. The whole album has therefore power and pressure. Everything right done, Mr. Thomsen - the thing rocks like hell and should be able to inspire his fans. The band, consisting of

Jürgen Wulfes (vocals),
Mike Pesin (guitar),
Niklas Turmann (bass)
Michael Kolar (drums), and of course Thomsen himself on guitar.
by the Band comes completely from the Hanover area, which will surely give us more live shows than on the previous albums.

albums. On those Thomsen had worked with people like Vinnie Appice Appice, Udo Dirkschneider and others. which made joint appearances difficult.

In any case, I'm already looking forward to the first Thomsen live show with us in Hanover, which will certainly not be long in coming.

Hammer Album!
